DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. This application is claiming the benefit of a prior filed nonprovisional application under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121, or 365(c). However, copendency between the current application and the prior application is required. Since the U.S. patent No. 6689321 (application US 10/266,797) was issued prior to the filing date of the instant application, no priority can be granted for the instant application.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 42-64 and 65-87 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-56 of U.S. Patent No. 6,479,297 and claims 1-28 of U.S. Patent No. 6,689,321, respectively. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because at least two electrodes of pending claims 65-87 read on a serpentine electrode and a comb electrode of claims 1-28 of the patent, with all other limitations recited in the patented claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. Claims 42-87 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Blalock et al. (US 2003/0138958 A1).

Blalock discloses a sensor array and a method for detecting a metallic compound including RuO₄, IrO₄ and RhO₄ in a gaseous phase. The sensor comprises a substrate surface, at least two electrodes and a receptor material deposited between electrodes, e.g. polypropylene film for detecting RuO₄. While Blalock does not specify a shape of the receptor material as two or more lines, it would have been obvious for anyone of ordinary skill in the art to modify Blalock's sensor by the shaping the receptor material as at least two lines in order to concentrate the detecting compound on these lines.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Torsi (GB 2,048,471 A) teaches "determination of metal in gas" by capturing the gas on the walls of a cylinder with an electrode with following measurement of the captured metal vapor with electrothermal atomic absorption; Nerney (US 3,714,562) teaches a "method and apparatus for the detection of selected components in fluids", e.g. mercury vapor in air, "by selectively absorbing the component onto a conductive thin layer of molecular thickness of a material having a chemical affinity for such compound, and observing the resultant change of electrical resistivity of the layer".
